

KS1 or KS2 ECT - Berger Primary School

Salary Main Scale

Contract Permanent

Hours Full Time

Berger Primary School seeks to appoint an excellent and enthusiastic ECT to join us in September 2024.

Berger is a vibrant and inclusive school in the heart of Hackney. In addition to achieving KS2 results higher than the national average, we are proud of our Creative Curriculum, which sees all subjects taught through the Lens of the Arts. If you are an ambitious ECT, who relishes the opportunity to support children to become high-achieving, passionate and resilient learners, then we welcome your application.

This position is suitable for only ECTs.

We pride ourselves on the excellent support and development opportunities we offer teachers at every stage of their careers.

To be the successful candidate you will need to:

- Be an excellent teacher with high expectations of children's learning and behaviour.
- Plan and deliver high-quality lessons which are cross-curricular and arts-based.
- Be resourceful, innovative and committed to professional development.
- Have excellent organisational and interpersonal skills.
- Share our vision, energy and enthusiasm for improving pupils' life chances.
- Promote the principles of inclusion by enabling every child to fulfil their potential.
- Take pride in developing the learning environment

Teachers at Berger Primary School benefit from:

- Excellent opportunities for professional development including leadership responsibilities for exceptional candidates
- A school which cares about supporting teachers by minimising their workload.
- The resources to deliver an innovative Creative Curriculum.
- A newly refurbished library and several outdoor learning spaces.
- A friendly and dedicated staff team, enthusiastic children and supportive parents.

Closing Date: Friday 19th April

Interview Date: Week commencing the 29th April 2024

Start Date: Monday 2nd September 2024
